New Hampshire Resources

State Park system

New Hampshire state parks are celebrating their 50th anniversary in 1985. Since 1935 the parks system's objectives have been (1) to preserve areas of unusual scenic, geological, and historical value, (2) to make provisions for public use and enjoyment of them compatible with their natural and historical features, and (3) to serve the recreational needs of both residents and tourists. New Hampshire operates 72 state parks, historic sites, natural areas and other points of interest from the Connecticut lakes to Hampton Beach. Some 4.5 million visitors enjoyed these resources during the 1984 winter and summer seasons. Following are the holdings of the Division of Parks and Recreation, totaling 29,498 acres, with the location of each.

Natural Heritage

Six federally endangered species are listed for New Hampshire — four animals and two plants. Animals are the Short Nose Sturgeon, Bald Eagle, Peregrine Falcon, and Indiana Bat. Plants are the Robbins Cinquefoil (Potentilla robbinsiana) and the Small Whorled Pogonia (Isotria medeoloides). Several additional species in New Hampshire, both plant and animal, are under review for federal listing.

In addition to the federally protected species, New Hampshire law protects animal species that are officially listed as "threatened" or "endangered." The list of species is revised every five years. The first five-year revision will be completed this year.

New Hampshire's endangered species act does not protect plants. Based on the number of locations in the state at which they are found growing (ten sites or fewer), New Hampshire hosts over 300 rare plants. Current information is maintained by the New Hampshire Natural Heritage Inventory, a cooperative effort of several private and state agencies. The inventory is an organized collection of data on the status and distribution of rare plant and animal species and exemplary natural communities.

EXECUTIVE COUNCILORS

Article 60 of the second part of the constitution provides for an executive council of five members to advise and act with the governor. Before the constitution there was a council both under the temporary constitution of the Revolution and under the provincial government. Since 1913 councilors have been elected by plurality vote to represent population but previously to that they were elected by majority vote to represent property. In the colonial days councilors were appointed.

The following is a list of all the councilors during this century giving the name and address of each and the years they served.

Durkin, Manchester, resulted in favor of Durkin — Appeal to the Ballot Law Commission resulted in favor of Wyman — appeal to the U.S. Senate by Durkin. U.S. Senate sent the appeal back to the State of New Hampshire, declaring a vacancy as of August 8, 1975 and under Chapter 1, Laws of 1975, a special election was held September 16, 1975, in which the final results were:

Durkin	140,778 votes
Wyman	113,007 votes

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Under the constitutional apportionment which provided for a house of representatives in congress, New Hampshire was allotted three seats. The national census of 1790 (first census) increased this to four, the second census of 1800 to five and the third census of 1810 to six seats. The census of 1830 reduced it to five, that of 1840 to four and that of 1850 to three. The census of 1870 reduced it to two, but the seat taken away was restored until the next census of 1880; since then the state has had two representatives.

Following are the election and recount results for the four races. The winners are indicated by asterisks.

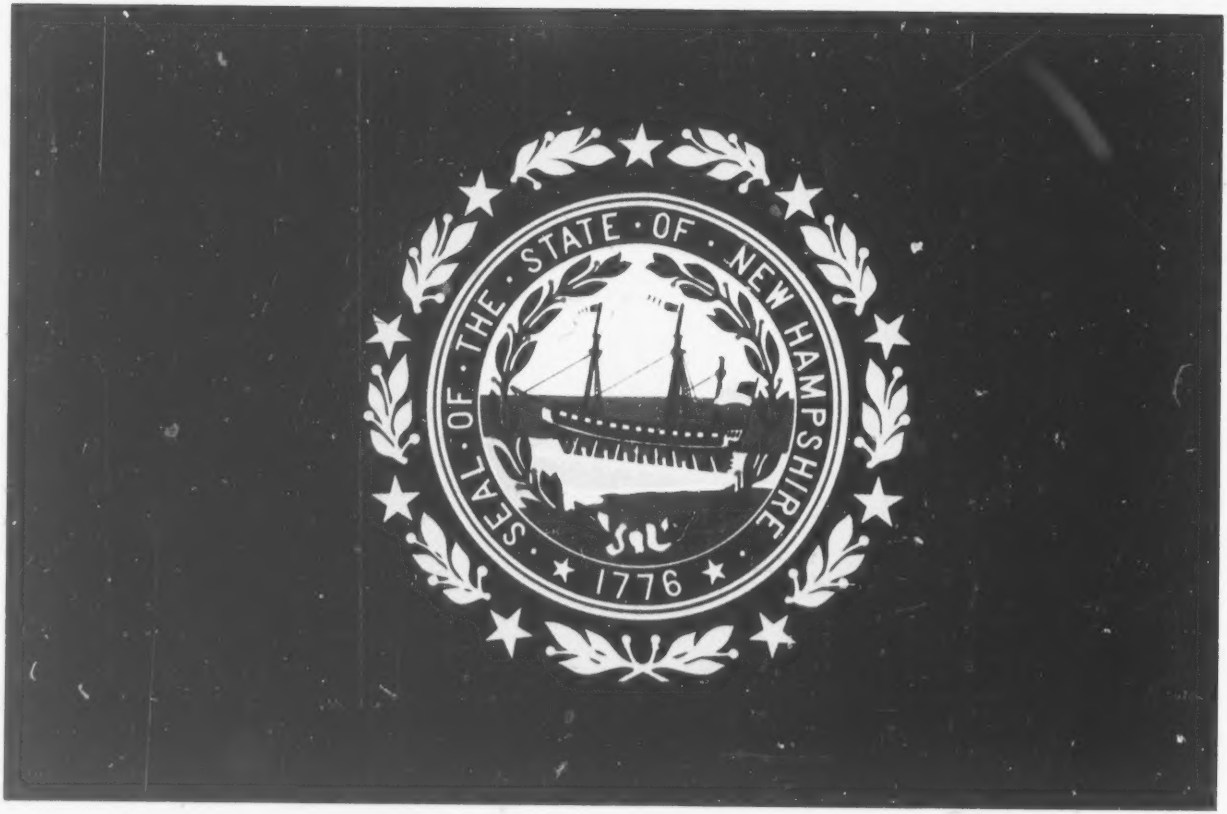
New Hampshire State Seal

New Hampshire State Bird — PURPLE FINCH

New Hampshire State Tree — WHITE BIRCH



New Hampshire State Flag

New Hampshire State Flower — PURPLE LILAC

This is the original State House before its first enlargement in 1864. Note four corner chimneys and three front entrances, there then being no rear doors. Note long wing tips on the Eagle, which were damaged and clipped when grounded for the renovations, and the old dome which was replaced in the 1864 project. Note original Capitol had two wings, both lower and narrower than the main structure and size of the elms planted some thirty years earlier.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the Primary, thirteen requests for recounts were received. Nine requests were Republican and four were Democratic.

Two recounts resulted in a change of nominees - Strafford County District No. 1 and Hillsborough County District No. 9 - both Representative to the General Court races. The election in Hillsborough County District No. 9 resulted in a tie. Peter F. Wells, Sr. won the tie breaker and a recount was requested by M. Arnold Wight, Jr. After the recount Mr. Wight was declared the nominee. One recount - Coos County District No. 7 for Representative to the General Court - was called off before it was completed.

The other recounts did not result in a change of nominees.

Below, in the first column are the figures officially returned to the Secretary of State. The second column contains the recount figures. The nominees for the Republican and Democratic parties are indicated by asterisks.
